TANLAC KEEPS ENTIRE FAMILY
IN SPLENDID HEALTH—MOTH-ER GAINS 15 POUNDS.

"Tanlac just keeps me feeling fine all the time, and I think it's the grandest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Jennie Bernberger, 826 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

"It was a little over two years ago that I first used Tanlac, and I got such wonderful results from it that I have taken a bottle every few months since just as a general tonic. Before I began taking the medicine I was so weak and worn out I could hardly look after my housework. My appetite was so poor I could scarcely eat anything, and what I did manage to eat seemed to give me no nourishment. I simply felt tired and miserable all the time.

"All my efforts to find anything to help me failed until I tried Tanlac, but I commenced improving from the day I started taking this medicine and four bottles built me up fifteen pounds in weight and made me just as healthy as I could ask to be.

"My daughter had a real nervous breakdown and the way Tanlac helped her was simply astonishing. As I said, I take Tanlac every once in a while as a tonic, and give it to the children too, and it keeps us all in good health all the time. I just can't praise this grand medicine enough for what it has done for us."

Tanlac is sold in Clovis by Southwestern Drug Company and by leading druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

BELLVIEW SCHOOL NOTES

The Bellview Boys went to Pleasant Hill Friday and played basket ball with the Pleasant Hill boys. The score was 18 to 20 in favor of Pleasant Hill.

Friday afternoon the "Willing Workers" society gave a very interesting program. The debate was exciting from start to finish. The subject was: "Resolved that the Philippine Islands Should Have Their Independence." The Willing Workers have challenged the "Lallegroes" to a contest consisting of a debate, oration, declamation and society song. The contest will probably be held the last of January.

Devotional exercises were conducted Thursday morning by Mr. Wagner of the Methodist church. He gave a very interesting lesson based on the fifth chapter of Matthew. We hope to have Mr. Wagner with us more often. Friday morning we were favored with a number by the "Invincible" trio—Troy Hill, George Seeley and Jack Whinery. The noise was not so bad but that we long to hear them again. Thelma Biggers also gave a piano solo.

The ninth grade is studying "The Christmas Carol" getting the Christmas spirit, all resolving not to be Scrooges.

Bellview will have a week's holiday beginning next Friday. We are all going to have a jolly good time and we are all coming back and begin the new year resolved to win.

Miss Horn and Miss Gallagher will spend the vacation with their parents near Texico. Miss Wingo will spend her vacation with her parents at Roswell, and Miss Greer will spend her vacation with her parents near Floydada, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Hill will keep the home fires burning at the dormitory this Christmas.

Several pupils have been out on account of sickness but nearly all are back in school now.

Mrs. Dixie Owen came out Monday and spent the day. She gave one of the most interesting talks ever given to the boys and girls at Bellview. Monday afternoon, Monday night she gave a great talk on Clara Barton and the college to be established at Clovis.

HOLLENE HAPPENINGS

Brother Cameron filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Agnes and Beulah, Holleone, who have been attending school in Clovis, have returned to their home on the farm and will complete their school term at Holleone.

Mr. J. L. Young has rented the Marvin Whittle place near the Texas line, for the coming year.

Mr. A. C. Schabro is visiting his father in Texas.

We were all sorry to hear that Mrs. Conway had taken pneumonia and would not be able to teach this week. The director employed Mrs. Jim Miller until Mrs. Conway will be able to take up her work again.

Mr. W. A. Killen was called last week to his mother's home in Oklahoma. The mother was not expected to live long.

COUNT YOUR PROBLEMS OURS

We are eager to furnish our patrons a banking service commensurate with their necessities and conservative banking methods; and take a personal interest in advising and assisting them.

Through this not too encouraging period, it is unfair to the public and the efforts of all towards re-adjustment and better times for any bank to advertise unlimited credit facilities.

It is our policy to claim no more, but if anything, a little less in our advertising than we can deliver.

We are glad to talk over any matters of business of finance.

"THE FARMERS' FRIEND"

TROOP No. TWO BOY SCOUTS ENTERTAIN

Troop No. 2 of the Boy Scouts entertained a few girl friends last Friday evening at the Christian church.

The girls who were guests of the Boy Scouts were: Deann Sammons, Louisa Kirby, Janet Smith, Cora Bell Meyers, Grace Hoffman, Wilma Allen, Irene Love and Georgina Davis. The scout master, Rev. C. D. Poston was chairman. Many interesting games were played during the evening. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of a very delightful evening with the girls wondering why all the boys did not belong to the Boy Scouts. More members are welcome to the Boy Scout organization by presenting your name to one of the members. We want hoosters.

SHE COULDN'T TELL WHY.

There is no use trying to joke with a woman. The other day Jones heard a pretty good conundrum, and decided to try it on his wife. "Do you know why I am like a male?" he asked her when he went home. "No," she replied promptly. "I know you are but I don't know why."

"NOW, LISTEN HARRY"

From a noon-day train the Taxi has just landed Harry and Maude at their new home after a very enjoyable honeymoon trip.

Maude admired the new home and its well appointed furnishings very much but as they stood in the kitchen she turned to Harry and said: "Now listen, Harry the thought that enters my mind now is how with this nicely arranged and well equipped kitchen, I may be able to prepare the health-giving food that is so essential to your happiness as well as your success."

"So thoughtful a wife, Maude, is sure to make a good cook. Allow me to make one suggestion, get the right kind of flour and the worst is averted in preparing appetizing meals."

"By that solved, Harry. Mother, I must say is a fine cook. She uses Weidman's IMPERIAL FLOUR and would have none other. She makes the crusts so good and I see it is advertised at the Corner Grocery, so let's go there and place our grocery order." This started another happy home.
